BECKY SHARP

8 reels. Miriam Hopkins, Alan Mowbray and C. Aubrey Smith.

This notable motion picture, "Becky Sharp," is indeed William M. Thackeray's great historical novel, "VANITY FAIR," come to life on the screen. All of Thackeray's gentle satire, his delineation of English character, his remarkable literary style, are faithfully portrayed. Thackeray's VANITY FAIR quickly raised him to the highest rank in fiction, and made him the literary rival of his friend, Charles Dickens. In "BECKY SHARP" you see combined the fine dramatic ability of Miriam Hopkins, Alan Mowbray and C. Aubrey Smith, with Thackeray's literary genius. A "must" for SCHOOLS—"Becky Sharp" will entertain all who see it—yet it will at the same time impress on every mind the deep significance of England's victory at Waterloo, and create a desire for more of Thackeray and his works of literature. Rental $20.00. In Series $17.50.

MELODY FOR THREE

Jean Hersholt, Fay Wray, Walter Woolf King, Toscha Seidel. This latest Dr. Christian picture provides the story with a musical background and has for its locale, not only the peaceful setting of Rivers End, but also the feverish activity of a Chicago broadcasting studio. Highlight of the film is the finale in which a 75 piece orchestra plays a stirring Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 5 with a boy prodigy as guest soloist.

REMEDY FOR RICHES

Jean Hersholt, Dorothy Lovett, Edgar Kennedy, Jed Prouty, Walter Catlett. A simple story, sparkling comedy and strong action characterize this new Dr. Christian film. The plot concerns itself with the efforts of a big city promoter to dupe the simple townfolk of Rivers End into buying shares in a worthless piece of property for exorbitant prices.

THEY MEET AGAIN

Jean Hersholt, Dorothy Lovett. Another heart warming picture of this series, in which this small town doctor saves an innocent man from a long prison sentence and brings about the recovery of the man's daughter from a serious illness. The dramatic story is combined with a fine musical score.

THE STORY

Tillie Knapp, daughter of the founders of the Knapp Orphanage, continues the operation of the Orphanage as had been the custom of her parents before their death. During the last several years it had been the yearly custom to take all of the children to Tillie's brother's ranch for a summer vacation. All plans had been made for the usual trip and the money for the trip had been sent to Tillie by Buck, her brother.

Alex Twitchell, the money-bag of the community, has purchased the mortgage due on the Orphanage and the Knapp Ranch, and when he confronts Tillie and demands immediate payment of the indebtedness, Tillie angrily turns over to him all the money that had been saved for the trip.

So that the children will not be disappointed, Joe, an old vaudeville partner of Tillie's, offers to take her and the children to the ranch in his truck. The children are overjoyed and pay little attention to the many trials and tribulations experienced on the trip.

Arriving at the ranch, the children learn that Aunt Tillie and Uncle Buck are in financial straits and enlist the aid of Jim Corey, an ex-member of their home, and Ellen Knapp, the daughter of Buck, to help them put on a kid rodeo and use the money to help Aunt Tillie.

During their strenuous practicing, in order to make the rodeo a success, Twitchell arrives upon the scene and ties up legally all the property of Buck's, which includes the ponies that the children were going to use in the rodeo. However, Twitchell becomes involved in an auto wreck and the children save him by taking him from under the car and rushing him to the hospital.

After Twitchell is on the road to recovery, he releases the ponies and the rodeo is held before a large audience and a very successful one. As the money is about to be paid over, Twitchell announces that the money is for the children and in addition he is going to build a bigger and finer home for the children because of what they had done.

YOUTH TAKES TO WINGS

4 reels. Is an official National Aeronautic Association motion picture produced with the co-operation of the Franklin Institute of the State of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa.

YOUTH TAKES TO WINGS is a quick, vivid exposition of the science of aero - dynamics that any school child can understand, yet presented so dramatically that grown-ups are lost in astonishment. A science that seems like a deep dark secret to the uninitiated is mercilessly exposed in one short hour.

We see how birds control their flight by manipulating wing and tail feathers; we see demonstrations of air flow, force, mass, density and thermals, and hear in simple layman's language, an explanation of these phenomena; we see the science of flight applied, a-b-c fashion, in the assembling and flying of small model planes; and immediately we are whisked up into space or out to an airport for a close inspection of full size commercial and defense planes.

We get a clear idea of the basic laws of aviation. We better appreciate what aviation has contributed to human progress and we are able to vision more clearly its possible future developments.

What that future of aviation may be depends upon the craftsmanship and imagination of our Air Minded Youth of today . . . our model airplane builders. Serving a voluntary apprenticeship in the school of practical experience, they are training their hands to precision workmanship and with searching minds they are ferreting out the secrets of flight. Already some of their models are pointing the way to future developments. These boys will soon have their day. Tomorrow they will be our pilots and mechanics, and the leaders of this rapidly growing industry.

Shots of model plane meets are shown where these youths exhibit their models and test their skills. Their enthusiasm, determination and patience is an inspiration for all of us, young and old.

YOUTH TAKES TO WINGS is an outstanding contribution to the air-mindedness of the public, and to the education of youth in the field of aeronautics. Rental $10.00.

THE CHURCH LISTJOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

9 reels. The film version of Maxwell Anderson's beautiful and deeply moving stage play. The eminent American dramatist and Pulitzer Prize Winner, Maxwell Anderson, has written an inspiring and highly dramatic story of the young Jesus. Little is known of His early life—and Mr. Anderson, selecting a passage from Luke which tells of a Passover Pilgrimage to Jerusalem, by the Boy and His family, chronicled this journey.

As the 12-year-old Child and His family rest in the hills, they are accosted by the robber-prophet Ishmael. He recognizes the Boy as the true Messiah, and leads Him safely through the guard of Herod's men stationed at the gates of Jerusalem, watching for His possible arrival.

In the Temple, Jesus confounds the priests of the Sanhedrin, with His profound logic, knowledge and wisdom, while they are discussing the coming of the Messiah.

Herod's men pursue Jesus, without success. When the King learns of their failure, he orders the persecution of the Jews, Believing they will rebel and that a leader will arise amongst them who will be the Messiah, whom he seeks for slaughter.

After an inspiring scene between the Boy and His Mother, the play ends with Jesus exhorting His kinsmen, who face persecution, to have faith. It is then that He is recognized as the Leader, whose coming they have awaited.

Rental $25.00. In Series $22.50.

CHICAGO CHURCH FEDERATION

Rev. Howard A. Vernon, President

77 West Washington Street, Chicago

I have just witnessed the moving picture, "The Man at the Gate." It leaves me deeply impressed and profoundly moved. In this chaotic world when clouds and darkness are round about us, and many people are groping after God, this picture will bring courage and confidence. It is a vivid portrayal of the hazardous life of the sea, and the indiscriminate tragedies of war, of the loss of faith, and finally the regaining of faith.

It is the kind of message this war-torn world needs to hear, and I heartily recommend it to the churches of Chicago.

Very sincerely,

REV. HOWARD A. VERNON.

Masterfully executed with character artists, completely flawless in their portrayal of every type of human emotion, in a traditional but modern setting. The perfect balance of the spiritual with the material has made a truly great picture story illustrating the amazing power of faith.

Especially appealing to those with loved ones in the armed services.

JOHN STEINBECK'S

THE FORGOTTEN VILLAGE

THE FORGOTTEN VILLAGE is an outstanding film which was seen by thousands during a long run in New York and later showings in other cities throughout the country.

CHURCH PEOPLE CANNOT VIEW THIS PICTURE WITHOUT FEELING ITS CHALLENGE TO CHRISTIAN MISSIONS.

"This film makes a most impressive missionary appeal. It stands not alone for an Indian village in Mexico, not for the 16,000,000 Indians of Latin America, but in reality for the multitudes of under-privileged people throughout the world whose lives are steeped in tradition, superstition and ignorance."—Dr. Emory Ross, General Secretary of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America.

In order to bring "The Forgotten Village" to the churches of America, we have developed a plan whereby church groups can secure this film at a price considerably below regular commercial rates.

It is particularly appropriate that "The Forgotten Village" should be used during the time when Latin America is being intensively studied. Preceding the showing it may be desirable to state that while the film contains no scenes of missionary work, it does present, most vividly, the world-wide need of mission lands for an enlightened Christianity. A suitable follow-up program should be planned for after the showing.

Showing time 60 minutes. 16mm. Sound.

Endorsed for Church use by: Baptist Literature Bureau, Foreign Missions Conference of North America, Methodist Board of Missions, Harmon Foundation, Missionary Education Movement, Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, Religious Film Association, Inc.

Supreme Concert Artists in Motion Pictures

JOSE ITURBI, Pianist

This impeccable musician and dazzling virtuoso has a dynamic personality and is a human being of charm and intelligence. He has been termed "the musician's yard-stick, the critic's delight and the public's idol." Iturbi's time is divided between his duties as Musical Director of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, recitals, radio and orchestral engagements. His fame as a pianist is world wide. Jose Iturbi plays: Reel No. 1: "Sevilla" by Albeniz—"Fantasia Impromptu" by Chopin. Reel No. 2: 3 pieces for the harpsichord by Jean Phillippe Rameau; on the piano, Liszt's Eleventh Hungarian Rhapsody.

COOLIDGE QUARTET, String Ensemble

Wm. Kroll, Violin; Nicolai Berezowsky, Violin; Nicholas Moldavan, Viola; Victor Gottlieb, Cello. "Unsurpassed by their contemporaries," says the Washington HERALD. This experienced group was featured with the famed Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Philadelphia Orchestra last year. In 1938-39 they presented 35 concerts in the Library of Congress in Washington and gave series of concerts at the San Francisco Exposition. Coolidge String Quartet plays: "Andante" from "String Quartet in E Flat Major" by Carl Von Dittersdorf, "Fugue" from Beethoven's "Quartet in C Major," Opus 59, No. 3.

MILDRED DILLING, Harpist

The technical proficiency of this leading woman harpist is matched by a stage presence "subtly and charmingly in accord with the shining blond instrument at which she sits." The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette styles her "Foremost woman harpist—a real virtuoso." In the past five seasons she has appeared before 355 select audiences in America and Europe. Mildred Dilling plays: "The Fountain" by Zabel, "Fireflies" by H. Hasselmans, "March of the Men of Harlech"—Welsh Air—arranged by John Thomas.

VRONSKY AND BABIN, Duo-pianists

These brilliant young performers met while students at Berlin where they had come from their native Russia to study under Arthur Schnabel. Marrying, they at once renounced separate careers. The perfect accord of their tastes and temperment as recorded in their playing caused the New Yorker to exclaim, "They make their pianos sing like matched voices." Their work is "dazzling" and "thrilling" say newspaper critics. Vronsky and Babin play: Reel No. 1: "Waltz in A Flat" by Brahms—"Valse" by Arensky, "Flight of the Bumble Bee" by Rimsky-Korsakoff. Reel No. 2: Polovtsian Dances from Prince Igor by Barodin.

IGOR GORIN, Baritone

The magnificent voice of this well-known concert, motion picture and radio artist is presented in this film. Igor Gorin sings: "Largo Al Factotum" aria from "The Barber of Seville" by G. Rossini.

EMANUEL FEUERMANN, Cellist

Feuermann made his debut at 11, was teaching the 'cello at 17 at Cologne University. Successful American and world tours followed his debut with the Philharmonic Symphony of New York.
